What Was Your Favorite Part? – Handout

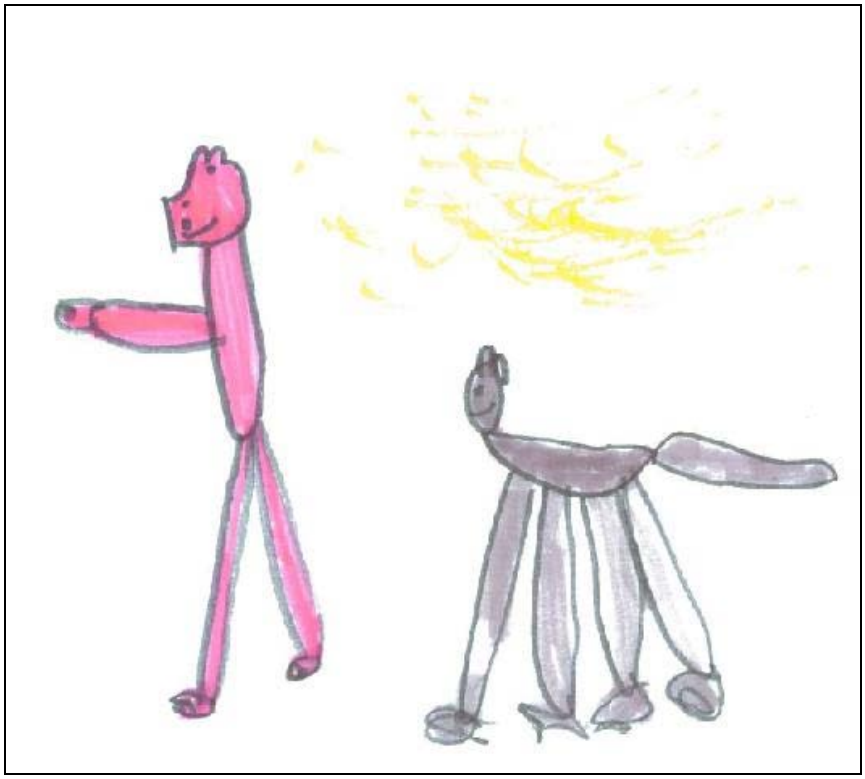
After reading The Three Little Pigs to the whole class, the teacher asks them the following questions:

1. Did you like this story?
   - While most children say yes, Brianna says no.

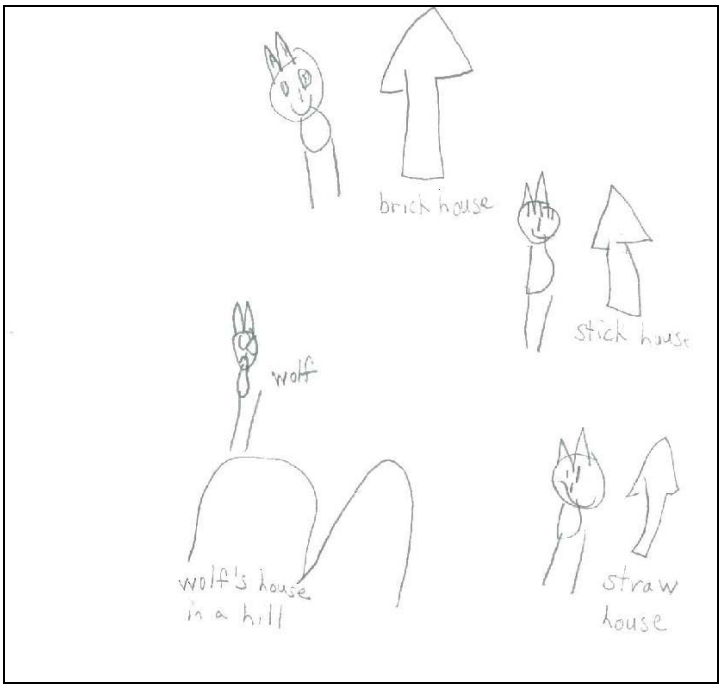
   You ask Brianna why.
   - "I just didn't like it."

2. What was your favorite part of the story?
   - Brandon: the ending
   - Emily: ending
   - Many other children agree

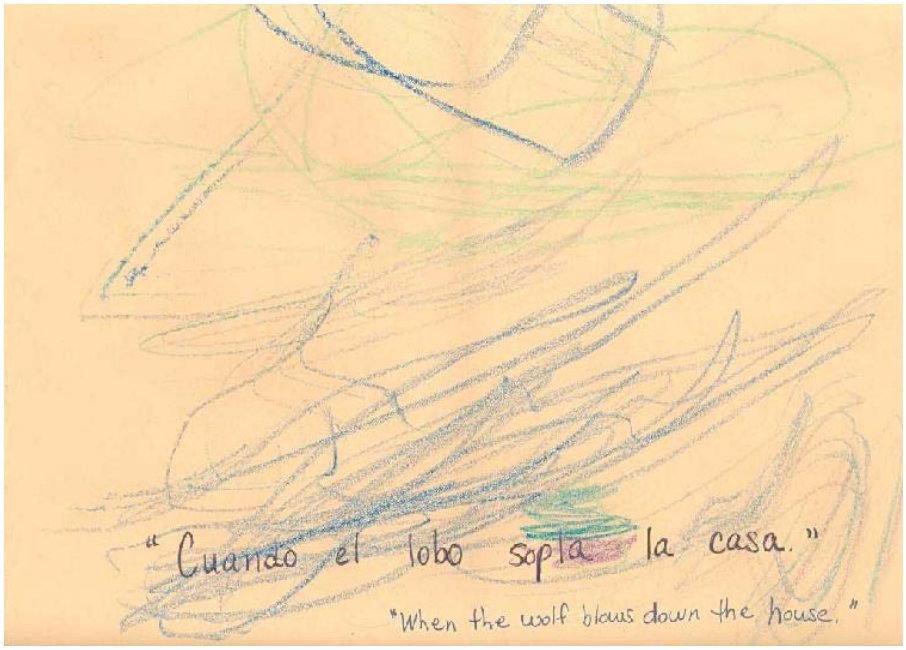
Then she asks the children to draw their favorite part of the story. Here are three of the pictures that children in the class drew:



The teacher labeled the parts of Emily's picture:



The assistant teacher wrote what Santiago said about his picture in Spanish, and then the teacher wrote the translation in English:



Alternative Documentation Tool

For some of the questions the teacher might like to ask, he or she could think ahead to what responses might be and create a form for collecting information about what the children notice or say.

The Three Little Pigs

Possible responses:	Brianna	Brandon	Emily	Aaron
"Not by the hair on my chinny chin chin"	Favorite part		Funniest part
Wolf wanted to get the pigs		Reason to blow houses down
Blew down the straw house
Blew down the stick house
Could not blow down the brick house				Favorite Part
Wolf fell in hot water		Favorite part		