

OHS-PSA2: Gregory Peck

Gregory Peck: Rich man, poor man, beggar man, thief, doctor, lawyer, indian chief. With the possible exception of indian chief, there's not one of those things today's child cannot grow up to be. Sadly, there are little children 4, 5 and 6 years old who are already headed for lives of frustration and misery.

These are the underprivileged ones, who, for one reason or another, didn't get the attention most kids get at home. No one ever read them a story, taught them a nursery rhyme, showed them about colors, letter and numbers. When they start school in the first grade, they'll be so far behind the others that they may never catch up.

But there is hope. The idea is to reach some of these children this summer, before they start to school. We need your help.

Write: Project Head Start, Washington, D.C.

You can turn a potential poor man-beggar man into a potential rich man, doctor or lawyer -- maybe even, an indian chief.