

Head Start Disabilities Services Newsletter

January 2010 | Issue #11

Featured Resources

The National Dissemination Center Family Support Hotline

The National Dissemination Center provides a toll-free family support hotline to serve individuals with disabilities and their families. Program staff may use this resource to help families find the appropriate programs or services for a child with special needs.

Accommodating All Children in the Early Childhood Classroom

Accommodating a child with specific needs is a continual process that involves each child's collaborative team. The Circle of Inclusion Project recommends several adaptations that teaching staff may use to create an inclusive environment for children with special needs.
