

PRESENTATION

The PowerPoint presentation Ongoing Child Assessment: Collecting and Using Anecdotal Records describes ways to help teachers effectively collect ongoing child assessment information. This presentation includes visual and video examples that illustrate these practices.

PRESENTER NOTES

This guide for presenters provides the training content for the in-service suite. It includes training details, tips, and helpful information on using the slides and other materials. Guidance is also provided for when and how to use supplemental materials.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Four learning activities can be used to extend the training:

- Selecting Objective Observations
- Collecting an Anecdotal Record (Video)
- Changing Teaching Strategies
- Observation as Part of the Daily Routine

TIPS FOR TEACHERS

This tip sheet includes simple, straightforward suggestions that teachers can easily use in the classroom.

TOOLS FOR TEACHERS

These supplementary materials support teaching and learning, and include the following forms for collecting anecdotal records.

- Anecdotal Record Notecards
- What to Record Today

TOOLS FOR SUPERVISORS

Supervisors can use these two handouts to support teachers in collecting anecdotal records. An Observation Form and an Interpretation Form provide teachers with feedback on their strengths, as well as suggestions for improvement.

- Observation Form
- Interpretation Form

HELPFUL RESOURCES

This is a list of additional resources for teachers, supervisors, or Early Childhood Education specialists who want to learn more about the topic. The list includes easy-to-locate articles, books, websites, etc., with brief descriptions of each resource.
