

Flow Chart Kit

Flow charts are helpful in designing complex processes. Programs can use symbols and arrows to visualize the steps in a process and identify potential bottlenecks that can be avoided.

Use the symbols below or create symbols of your own to sketch a flow chart depicting the flow of information and reports through your governance system so that key stakeholders and use the information to accomplish their different responsibilities and together improve outcomes for children and families.

Flow of Reports through Our Governance Systems