

Marvelous Explorations through Science and Stories (MESS): Using the Teacher's Guide

(links for viewing and download at end of transcript)

Elba Carrillo: When we... Every month that we start an -- you know, a new -- new theme, we go over the guide. And sometimes if it's something that we think is going to be hard, we practice that at home and then we come here and we know what to do, because we don't want surprises when we go.

Judy Johftono: Yes, I take the box home with me and I take home the lesson guide with me, and I study it before I present it to the classroom. If I didn't take it home, I wouldn't have time to really sit down and know what's going on the next day, so I do -- I do carry it home and read it at home. And I even take the box home with me and go through it.
