

Using Interactive Media in Early Learning Learning Activity Criteria for Media Use

Objective

To make a list of criteria to consider when using screen media in early learning

Instructions

Thinking about your own experiences with media, your knowledge of child development, and information learned from this module, write a list of key points to consider in choosing media for an early childhood classroom.

A useful resource that reviews important points is:

National Association for the Education of Young Children and the Fred Rogers Center for early Learning and Children's Media. (January 2012). Technology and interactive media as tools in early childhood programs serving children from birth through age 8.
