

A Guide to the Dual Language Learners Program Assessment (DLLPA)

10. Transition Services

This section addresses the critical nature of support for DLL children and families as they transition through the process of lifelong learning and development. Effective communication in families' home languages and outreach to community stakeholders are important considerations.

Head Start Program Performance Standards

Consider your program's implementation of the following requirements. For all program options, do our family engagement services...

Transitions from Head Start to kindergarten, 45 CFR §1302.71

[...] (b) Family collaborations for transitions. (1) A program must collaborate with parents of enrolled children to implement strategies and activities that will help parents advocate for and promote successful transitions to kindergarten for their children, including their continued involvement in the education and development of their child.

(2) At a minimum, such strategies and activities must: [...]

(iii) Prepare parents to exercise their rights and responsibilities concerning the education of their children in the elementary school setting, including services and supports available to children with disabilities and various options for their child to participate in language instruction educational programs; [...]

Support children’s transition into and within our program by discussing classroom materials, the daily schedule, and basic rules of the classroom so that families may communicate this information with their child in their home language?

Help our families understand that the transition to academic use of English may take up to five years, and even though their child has learned some English, the child might still be placed in a bilingual or English as a Second Language (ESL) kindergarten as appropriate?

Develop memoranda of understanding with partners, such as local education liaisons, child care, and other early childhood programs, to ensure that our transition plans include strategies to support children who are DLLs?
